THEY WANT SEIDL TO LEAD. Wagnerians Who Are Opposed to Damroso

Say They Have the Best Singers. The Wagnerites who do not think that Walter Damrosch knows anything at all about Wagner are delighted at the announcement, which has just been made public, that Anton Seldl is to conduct a season of German opera next fall, and that Anton Schott, the tenor, will not only sing, but will have the superintendence of the mis en scene, so that the whole thing will be
